Directions: As you find organisms during your tour of the Bay, write their names on this diagram, showing if they live only in water, only on land, or in both places.