

The Great Shellfish Bay

Inquiry Investigation Worksheet

Investigate your environment. Use the internet and reference sources, your own observation, and information from the Great Shellfish Bay interactive to research the following questions.

What county or city do you live in?

What is the landscape like where you live? What waterways and landscapes are nearby?

What are the native plants and animals of this area? What types of ecosystems exist?

What has changed in your environment throughout history?