

You Hurt My Feelings

07:19-12:08 of the original audio

Mary Lane (sings):

You hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

Boy you hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

You know I tried so hard, trying to get along

You know I gave him everything

Everything a poor girl could

You know I gave him everything

Everything a poor girl could

You know he going around telling people I didn't mean him no good

(That's right!)

You hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

Oh you hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

You know I tried so hard, trying to get along

The man he told me he love me

Never would leave me alone

(He told a damn lie)

The man he told me he love me

Never would leave me alone

You gotta do like I ask you

Find yourself a brand new home

You hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

(You shouldn't have did it)

You hurt my feelings

Baby you know that's wrong

You know I tried so hard, trying to get along

(Yeah)

(Yeah)

(One more time)

*You know I gave him everything
Everything a poor girl could
You know I gave him everything
